

Defense Chiefs Gather for Secret Talks

QUANTICO, Va., June 17 (UPI)—U. S. defense chiefs from around the world were closeted in secret talks today on a wide range of problems such as the ending of U-2 spy flights over Russia, the Japanese riots and a more difficult cold-war road ahead.

Gen. C. P. Cabell, deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency, was scheduled to deliver the opening briefing of the three-day meeting of 165 civilian and uniformed military leaders. Nothing public was expected to emanate from the closely-guarded meeting until some sort of summary is put out Sunday.

Cabell's appearance raised prospects that the group would hear a run down on how cancellation of the U-2 flights has changed intelligence gathering methods.

On another development, Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. said Friday that the possibility recent violence in Japan might prevent ratification of the new United States-Japanese security treaty was "extremely disturbing."

Gates noted the Senate seemed entirely favorable to the Treaty and it was "important that it be ratified."
